

WALLINGFORD.

The adjourned annual borough meeting will be held in the town hall this evening. The annual reports as compiled by Clerk Fraray Hall are the most complete that has ever been offered to the taxpayers and contain a clear accounting for every penny that has been paid out during the past year, and to whom it was paid and for what service. There can be no complaint as to the incompleteness, as every bill paid appears in the report complete.

The recent rains have helped out the water in Paugh pond, and Saturday there was about thirty-five inches clear in the gatehouse and quite a sizeable stream running through the canal into the stream. The water at present is about the same as a year ago at this time, and the pump has not been used since a year ago last spring.

Thomas P. Bailey of this place and Miss Minnie E. Trilley of New Haven will be married in St. Mary's church in New Haven at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Captain Joel Rice of North Main street, who has been quite ill, is on the improve.

Whitney Elliott of North Haven has sold to Caroline De Gardo what is known as the Silas Hitchcock place on the east side of town.

Daniel Wetzel and Miss Henrietta Michaels will be married at St. Paul's rectory at 6 o'clock Wednesday evening. An hour later, at the same place, Louis Kahl and Miss Esther M. Lawrence will be joined in the bonds of wedlock. Rev. J. E. Whitman will officiate.

"A Struggle for Life" is the next attraction booked for the opera house on Friday evening.

Cleve Thompson was a borough visitor last evening and the guest of Dr. J. W. F. Marx.

The schools close to-morrow night until Monday.

R. D. Perkins has been appointed to take the annual military enrollment.

There will be a union prayer and praise meeting in the Baptist church at 11 o'clock this evening.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Congregational church Wednesday evening. Rev. W. W. Peck will have for his subject, "Cultivation of Thankfulness."

The T. A. B.'s fair will be closed until Thursday evening, and then continue until Saturday evening, when it is expected to close for good.

Mrs. N. M. Harrison, who has been the guest of her brother, William McDonald, started yesterday for her home in Baltimore.

The new plank on Community bridge will be completed to-day, if the weather is not too stormy.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE LAST NIGHT.

Wallingford, Nov. 25.—Charles Knowlton, a hostler, who works for M. S. Ingraham, the liveryman, in this place, attempted to commit suicide by cutting his throat in the Ingraham stables at about 10 o'clock this evening. The wound is not thought to be serious. Knowlton was arrested and locked up.

A Large Fleet of Vessels.

About one hundred sails are anchored in the lower harbor awaiting favorable winds.

WEST HAVEN.

The Samedy Banjo club of West Haven will give a concert in the West Haven Congregational church under the auspices of the First Company, Boys' brigade, next month.

The program will include Dr. Cooley, tenor soloist; of Bridgeport; Miss Susie Palmer, a promising pupil of Miss Mary Burtley Buckle; the Y. M. C. A. colored quartet and comical songs by Joseph Walker, leader of the banjo club. The club will render a fine program.

The Fortnightly Social club held their first meeting in the town hall last evening. Among the dancers were Miss Blanche Pardee, Miss Minnie Strickland, Miss Susie Cummings, Miss Mabel Stiles, Miss Susie Kinner, Miss Nellie Lamb, Miss Winnie Kendrick, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Thomas, Frederick A. Kendrick, Homer D. Bradley, J. Stuart Reynolds, George H. Seward, Walter H. Thompson, Wilbur Warner, Charles C. Lombard, Charles B. Warner, A. M. Lockwood.

Thanksgiving Help Needed.

A number of families have already been assigned through the City missions to churches, Sunday school classes and individuals for Thanksgiving help. Quite a number of others remain unprovided for on the list of over one hundred dependent families personally known to Rev. Mr. Mossman and Miss Hume, who will distribute money or supplies in behalf of those who send to the mission hall, corner of Court and State streets, and will also, as opportunity may be given, mention deserving people to others able to supply their needs. The City Mission hall is open daily from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 o'clock p. m.

FINANCIAL NOTES.

New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad seems to be gaining friends in Boston, as there is a steady demand for the stock from Boston houses at constantly advancing prices. Possibly the near approach of the closing of the books for the next dividend has some influence upon investors. A week ago it was selling at $140.155. To-day it sold at $181.15, closing quotations being $180.157, with no large lots of the stock in sight.

Stockholders of the Erie railroad have paid their third assessment of $3 per share. The price advanced to correspond from 9 1/2 to 12 1/2, with little or no demand.

Funeral of William Crowley.

The funeral of William Crowley was attended from his late residence, 99 St. John street, yesterday morning at 8:30, and at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church, which was filled with people. A high mass of requiem was celebrated, with Father Harty as celebrant, Father Rigney of Seymour deacon, Father O'Connor sub deacon and Father Russell master of ceremonies. The bearers were Thomas McGrath, Peter Reynolds, Joseph Malloy, John Cox, Bernard Clark, and John Carney. The interment was in St. Bernard's cemetery.

Funeral of Mrs. Nolan.

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Nolan, wife of John J. Nolan, was attended from the late home of the deceased at 188 Poplar street yesterday morning at 8:30 and from St. Francis church at 9 o'clock. There was a solemn mass of requiem conducted by Rev. Father Mulholland. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Floral tributes were placed on the casket in great profusion. A number of appropriate selections were rendered by the choir of the church. The burial took place in St. Bernard's cemetery, and a long procession followed the remains to the place of interment.

SPARED HIS WIFE.

But Hermann Hattenhorst Put His Children in a Box and Suffocated Them, Then Killed Himself.

Brooklyn, Nov. 25.—After killing his two children by locking them in a large box and suffocating them with gas, Hermann Hattenhorst, thirty-five, a boxing instructor, committed suicide by shooting himself in the right temple. No cause is assigned for the deed other than despondency over business matters. The bodies were found at 12:30 o'clock this morning by Roundsman Holleran in a room used by the man to give boxing lessons on the second floor of No. 1295 Broadway.

It is supposed that the man stood by talking to the children until they became unconscious. After being sure of their death he took the cover off and then fired a bullet through his own head. The box used was an ordinary large case in which Hattenhorst kept his clubs and boxing gloves.

When Mrs. Hattenhorst saw the bodies of her husband and children she became hysterical.
